& Fraternities &

LODGES.

Monday—Potomac, No. 5, M. M.; Benja-min B, French, No. 15, business, address by grand master; Pentalpha, No. 23, E. A.; Mount Pleasant, No. 33, F. C.

sday—National, No. 12, social; Arminius, No. 25, E. A.; King David, No. 28, F. C.; Lebanon, No. 7, special, M. M.

Wednesday—Washington Centennial, No. 14, M. M.; Osiris, No. 26, special, 6 p.m., F. C.; and stated, 7:30 p.m., F. C.; East Gate, No. 34, business. Thursday—Naval, No. 4, E. A.; Hiram, No. 10, F. C.; La Fayette, No. 19, E. A.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS. Tuesday-La Fayette, No. 5, P. M. and M. E. M.

Friday-Lebanon, No. 7, M. M.

Friday-School of instruction. ROYAL AND SELECT MASTERS. Monday-Washington Council, No. 1, degrees.

Thursday—Adoniram Council, No. 2, business, KNIGHTS TEMPLAR COMMANDERIES. Monday-Orient, No. 5, grand visitation. Wednesday-Potomac, No. 3, grand visi-

Friday-Columbia, No. 2, grand visi-

ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE. Tuesday-Mithras Lodge of Perfection, business,

mander Towers will install the following new officers of the commandery:
George W. Slater, eminent commander; Thomas Gates, generalissimo; Charles H. Squiers, captain-general; Millard T. Dixon, senior warden; Roland M. Brown, junior warden; Richard P. Evans, prelate; J. J. Membert, treasurer; William E. Miller, recorder; John Gaub, standard bearer; Otto B. Roepke, sword bearer, and Clyde H. Filley, warder.

The committee of arrangements consists of Past Commanders E. P. Hazlesing Response of Past Commanders E. P. Hazlesing Response was presented by the committee of past Commanders E. P. Hazlesing Response was presented by the commanders E. P. Hazlesing Response was presented by the commanders E. P. Hazlesing Response was presented by the commanders E. P. Hazlesing Response was presented by the commanders of Past Commanders E. P. Hazlesing Response was presented by the commanders of Past Commanders E. P. Hazlesing Response was presented by the commander of Past Commanders E. P. Hazlesing Response was presented by the commander of Past Commanders E. P. Hazlesing Response was presented by the commander of Past Commanders E. P. Hazlesing Response was presented by the commander of Past Commanders E. P. Hazlesing Response was presented by the commander of Past Commanders of Past Commander of P sists of Past Commanders E. P. Hazle-ton, Guy M. Neely and William E. Mil-ler and Thomas J. Gates, generalissi-mo-elect.

Monarch I. S. Goldsmith of Kallipolis Grotto, Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets, who had been taken to the George Washington University Hospital, suffering, as it was supposed, with typhoid fever, apparently fooled the doctors, for he has returned to his home, although still far from well. A mistaken diagnosis caused his family and friends no little anxiety.

Deputy Grand Monarch Ed. S. Schmid left Wednesday for Hamilton, N. Y., to confer with officers of the Supreme Council with respect to the forthcoming session of that body, to be held in this city. There will be a meeting of the convention committee tomorrow the convention committee tomorrow evening in the Chamber of Commerce by all."

No. 5, tomorrow evening, and Master Joseph A. Bennett has extended a general invitation to the fraternity to be present.

Grand Master James W. Whitten will deliver an address before Benjamin B. French Lodge, No. 15, tomorrow even-

United States is divided into sections, the boundaries of which are coincident with state lines. For each section there is eventually to be a Grand Councll, which will have jurisdiction over in-dividual councils. These Grand Councils, cll, which will have jurisdiction over individual councils. These Grand Councils, in turn, are represented in the general grand body. In all states and territories where there is no Grand Council the General Grand Council retains its jurisdiction, grants charters and exereises authority over individual councils.

Royal Arch Masons only are eligible for council membership. The council is called "the capstone" of what is known as the York system.

There is no Grand Council in the District of Columbia. The General Grand Council is to hold its triennial assembly in this city in September, 1918, immediately preceding the triennial convocation of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States, which is to convene October 2, 1918. It is usual for grand bodies in the jurisdictions where the general grand bodies meet, to act as host.

Under the situation existing in the District of Columbia the General Grand Council is supreme. The general grand master has appointed as his special deputy for this occasion, Past Grand High Priest E. St. Clair Thompson, who

local councils the deputy for the general grand master announced the appointment of a central committee for the purpose of working with the several councils and caring for the details of the meeting of the general body in 1918. The central committee consists of Dr. Mark F. Finley and George G. Seibold, past masters of Washington Council, No. 1: William W. Jermane, now grand high priest of the local Grand Chapter; Charles E. Alexander, past master of Adoniram Council, No. 2: Dr. Montgomery Hunter, master, and Roe Fulkerson, deputy master of Columbia Council.

The central committee is now actively at work. The meetings of these general grand bodies are expected to bring to Washington about 20,000 visitors for a week, who are to be made to feel and appreciate the hospitality and attractions of the National Capital.

National Ledge, No. 12, will devote Tuesday evening to "sociability and good fellowship," according to the announcement of Master J. L. McGrew. Senior Warden Edward Burkholder will give an original reading and there will be contributions by other members.

George T. Barber, a member of Osiris Ledge No. 25 was hodly but in an Good for the command of the contributions of the National Capital.

An illustrated lecture by P. H. Dorsett, land introduction, in the property of the office of the foreign seed and plant introduction.

George T. Barber, a member of Osiris Lodge, No. 26, was badly hurt in an automobile accident at Vermont avenue and U street northwest Friday morn-ing, when a street car ran into the ma-chine operated by W. W. Britt, his son-in-law, badly demolishing it.

La Fayette Royal Arch Chapter, No. 5, will have the P. M. and M. E. M. degrees at its convocation Tuesday evening. At its last convocation the chapter adopted resolutions sustaining the President in his proclamation of war against Germany. It was also voted to display the American flag in all meetings of the chapter henceforth.

Master Marx E. Kahn of Washington Rev. J. Harvey Dunham, pastor of the Western Presbyterian Church, will officiate at the religious services at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Hiram Lodge, No. 14, will have charge of the services. afternoon at 3 o'clock. Hiram Lodge, No. 10, will have charge of the services.

Grand Commander Lemuel Towers, ir., will start the grand visitations to the Knights Templar commanderies night" at Rauscher's, when admission will be representatives this week in Orient Commandery, No. 5, tomorrow evening. The speakers for the occasion will be Representatives and Frank W. Mondell of Wyoming, both of whom have held high positions and are Masons of the thirty-third degree in the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite. A musical program will also be presented, and Grand Commander Towers will install the following new officers of the commander:

George W. Slater eminent command.

Besides "a good time was had

The Masters' Association of 1917 will Dawson Lodge, No. 16, is to entertain present the M. M. degree in Potomac with a "ladies' night" May 5. William Lindgren, a member of Hop

Lodge, No. 20, is reported ill with ty phoid fever in Providence Hospital. Election of officers for the coming

the meeting of the Trestleboard Club of master Masons next Saturday even club has had an unusually

The lodge circulars are beginning to discuss the Masonic base ball game between the teams of Almas Temple of the Shrine and Kallipolis Grotto of the Veiled Prophets, June 23, for the benefit of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home.

Senior Deacon James A. West will head the line in Pentalpha Lodge, No. 23, tomorrow evening, in the E. A. degree. It will be his initial effort, Master Frank Kimmel says. The M. M. degree is scheduled for May 7 and the F. C. degree for May 21.

Ing. The club has had an unusually successful year.

The members of Takoma Masonic by Associate Matron Mrs. Julia Franke.

The members of Takoma Masonic Julia Franke.

Degree work Tuesday evening and a mask ball at Masonic Hall, Georgetown, Friday evening are announced by Mrs. Mary E. Kunkel, matron of Mizpah Chapter, No. 8, with a general invitation to the fraternity to be present and the decorations surpassed in attractive-ness anything ever before seen in the lodge home. An artistic display of American flags throughout the entire auditorium gave to the occasion of the Masonic Hall, Georgetown, Friday evening are announced by Mrs. Mary E. Kunkel, matron of Mizpah Chapter, No. 8, with a general invitation to the fraternity to be presented in attractive-ness anything ever before seen in the lodge home. An artistic display of American flags throughout the entire auditorium gave to the occasion of the contraction F. C. degree for May 21.

A movement which may interest local Masons is the organization in Alexandria of the Washington-Jackson Masonic Study Club, which held its first meeting there Monday evening, when officers were elected and plans adopted for running the organization. The officers are C. Page Waller, jr., president, A. C. Moss, secretary-treasurer, and K. B. Seeds, critic.

The oblicat of this results of the second of the second of palms, blooming plants and an abundance of Ascension lilies, the fragrance of which latter permeated the entire hall, suggesting peace beneath the flag.

As an opening chorus "The Star Spangled Banner" was sung in the darkened room under the leadership for running the organization. The officers are C. Page Waller, jr., president, A. C. Moss, secretary-treasurer, and K. B. Seeds, critic.

The object of this new association is the promotion of Masonic study, and from the enthusiasm shown at the first meeting, it is said, it promises soon to be among the largest of these study clubs, which are being organized in all parts of this country under the guidance of the National Masonic Research Society. In naming the club the names of both Masonic lodges in Alexandria were used. The membership, however, is not confined to them, but is open to all master Masons. The next meeting will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Preparation for the triennial sessions of the General Grand Council of Royal and Seiect Masters of the United States is beginning to take form. The General Grand Council is the clearing house for what is known as "Cryptic Masonry" in the United States is divided into sections. the words being projected upon the screen by means of illustrated slides. E. B. Thompson was responsible for the illustrating and lighting effects, which contributed largely to the success of the occasion.

With all its members and guests tagrand body. In all states and terriaries where there is no Grand Council in the General Grand Council is urisdiction, grants charters and excreises authority over individual council is.

Royal Arch Masons only are eligible for council membership. The council is called "the capstone" of what is known as the York system.

There is no Grand Council in the District of Columbia. The General Grand Council is to hold its triennial assembly in this city in September, 1918, immediately preceding the triennial convol. States, which is to convene October 2, 1918. It is usual for grand bodies in the jurisdictions where the general grand bodies meet, to act as host. Under the situation existing in the District of Columbia the General Grand Council is supreme. The general grand bodies meet, to act as host. Under the situation existing in the District of Columbia the General Grand Council is supreme. The general grand bodies meet, to act as host. Under the situation existing in the District of Columbia the General Grand Council is supreme. The general grand bodies meet, to act as host. Under the situation existing in the District of Columbia the General Grand High Priest E.S. Clair Thompson, who is also chairman of the triennial convolidity for this occasion, Past Grand High Priest E.S. Clair Thompson, who makes the hash appointed as his special deputy for this occasion, Past Grand High Priest E.S. Clair Thompson, who makes the hash of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the District for the heapter and its members for faults that the cast, and an interest the price of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the District for the cocasion, Grand High Priest Best Clair Thompson, who makes the heapter and its members for faults the correct of the distribution of the wit and wisdom of its high priest, Sydney R. Jack Machael Royal Rath Masons of the United States.

The chapter has a different man has an additorium of the new Xortheast man anditorium distance washing printed in Mason of the wit and the card, Mount Pleasant R ged with large white keystones em-blazoned in red, with the chapter's name and the hoodoo "13," and the

An illustrated lecture by P. H. Dorsett, plant introducer of the office of foreign seed and plant introduction, bureau of plant industry, entitled, "Plant Introduction Explorations in Brazil," was the feature of the last meeting of the Triangle Club of Master Masons held at the New Ebbitt. Refreshments were served afterward. The booster committee has appointed May 16 as the date for the club's dance, to be held in the private ballroom of the Arcade.

Dispensary and Casualty Hospital, at a recent meeting, adopted resolutions ex-pressing deep regret at the death of Past Grand Master Henry K. Simp-Past Grand Master Henry K. Simpson, who was its secretary, and setting forth his qualities as "a progressive citizen, a valuable neighbor, a devoted husband and an associate whose counsel and advice were helpful and whose heart and hand were ever onen to the needs of the unfortunate, to alleviate their suffering and to bring them relief." Sincere sympathy was expressed and a copy of the resolutions was ordered to be sent to the family.

tainment. Senior Warden Robert R. Cooke, jr., is chairman of the committee of arrangements. May 2 the M. M. degree is scheduled, with Master Kahn heading the line.

Osiris Lodge, No. 26, is working full time this season, degree work with several candidates for each having been in order the past two communications, with a special scheduled for Wednesday evening at 6 p.m., followed by the stated communication at 7:39 and the stated communication at 7:30 and the stated communication at 7:30 and the stated communication at 7:30 and the stated communication. The second with a playlet entitled "The Chalk Line," written and staged by Charles A. Stevens. The scene was the "squash Center Country Store," Hung about the store and post office were the stated communication at 7:30 and the store and post office were the stated communication at 7:30 and the store and post office were the stated communication. The sketch is catchy, and interspersed with pathos and fun. Miss Alice Stone had the character of "Sunshine," the old groceryman's daughter the store and post office were the "Guarden and undence of 400, and was opened with a playlet entitled Commandery, No. 3, will be made Wednesday evening and to Columbia Commandery, No. 2, Friday evening.

The special session of Temple-Noyes Lodge, No. 32, which was called for last Thursday evening, was afterward called off, and Master Hodges and nounced that at the communication April 27, the subject of a contribution to the American Red Cross fund will be considered.

The announcement of East Gate Lodge, No. 34, for Wednesday evening holds something of promise for "young Masons" as well as for those who are unable to attend the lodge meetings frequently. Instructions of a helpful nature will be given, says Master Argument of the Lodge, No. 32, which was called for last Thursday evening, was afterward called off, and Master Hodges and holds something of promise for "young Masons" as well as for those who are unable to attend the lodge meetings frequently. Instructions of a helpful nature will be given, says Master Argument of the Lodge, No. 34, for Wednesday evening holds something of promise for "young Masons" as well as for those who are unable to attend the lodge meetings frequently. Instructions of a helpful nature will be given, says Master Argument of the particular of the particular of the same of the Lodge, No. 34, for Wednesday evening holds something of promise for "young Masons" as well as for those who are unable to attend the lodge meetings frequently. Instructions of a helpful nature will be given, says Master Argument of the particular of the particular of the particular of the audience in a roar of laughter with a quaint monologue, and but he part of an old-time actor. Others who took part were Raymond Fillius. A. L. Grimes, J. T. Fowler, William Kentlebury. The particular of th and the patriotic spirit of the assembly seemed unbounded. Even the dance music was of the patriotic order, a one-step, "Dixie," arranged by Prof. Moody,

Order of the Eastern Star.

CHAPTERS. Monday—Ruth, No. 1, program of en-tertainment; St. John's Ledge, No. 18, official visit and degrees. Tuesday—Mizpah, No. 8, degrees: Fidelity, No. 19, celebration program. Wednesday—Arenie, No. 10, social; Unity, No. 22, degrees. Thursday—Esther, No. 5, official visit and degrees.

nd grand patron during the week are anounced for St. John's Lodge Chapter, No. 18, tomorrow evening and Esher Chapter, No. 5, Thursday evening, At both degree work will be presented, performance refreshments were served in the banquet hall. The business porfollowed by a brief entertainment, Fidelity Chapter, No. 19, will meet Tuesday evening in the hall at Iowa Avenue M. E. Church, 14th and Emerson streets northwest. Matron Emily Fletcher and Patron John S. Berryman have announced that "the outstanding indebtedness has been entirely extinguished and it is expected the canceled notes will be burned in celebration of the fact at this meeting." A program of entertainment has been arranged for.

Unity Chapter, No. 22, will have "work" Wednesday evening and a card party at the Logan apartments April 25.

N. Streater will entertain the grand matron and grand patron on their offichai visit to Esther Chapter, No. 5, Thursday evening. Quite a number of the members of the chapter for the past two weeks have been busily en-gaged in the preparation of supplies for Red Cross hospitals, and interest in this patriotic work is said to be extending extending.

a dance Friday evening in charge of Mrs. Luella J. Bartlett, its conductress. The chapter also will entertain Takoma Lodge, No. 29, F. A. A. M., Friday evening, April 27.

Tuesday evening, April 24, at the close of its business meeting, Bethle-nem Chapter, No. 7, is to have a "parcel lost," followed by dancing in the banquet room, and Friday evening. Apri 27, the chapter is to have a dance in the main auditorium of the new Northeas northwest, tomorrow, and a rummage winter, when the Yonkers team consale will be started at 1715½ 7th street ferred the degree in this city.

Representative L. W. Fairfield of Indiana was an interested observer of the degree work in Naomi Chapter, No. 3, Wednesday evening, and in his address, which followed, was highly complimentary to the officers. A brief memoriam service was held for Miss Tacle Daniel and W. H. H. Gould, members of the chapter, who had recently died. Appropriate resolutions were presented and adopted.

Past Grand Patron Arthur M. Poynton will be in charge of the program of entertainment which is being prepared for the meeting April 25, when pared for the meeting April 25, when Past Grand Master Lurtin R. Ginn, who is a member of Naomi Chapter, will talk of his personal experiences and impressions formed during his recent visit to the Fanama Canal Zone.

William Cutshall received the initia-William Cutshall received the initia-tory degrees in Brookland Chapter, No. 11. Wednesday evening in the Brook-land Masonic Temple, and Past Matron Mrs. Sidney G. Wright made a report of a recent entertainment given under of a recent entertainment given under the auspices of the past matrons of the chapter, which was received with evident pleasure.

Tomorrow evening the chapter will give its theater party and Mrs. Pearl Watt, the matron, announced a rum-mage sale for the first week in May. Grand Patron James D. Rowen was a guest of the evening and made an adguest of the evening and made an address complimentary to the officers and their work. The grand patron is an honorary member of Brookland Chapter. Following the business and degree work the chapter and its guests were entertained by Mrs. Hodge and Mrs. Love of Areme Chapter, and Mrs. Helena Lennon, past matron. Refreshments were served during the social bour

The Matrons and Patrons of 1912 were recently entertained by Past Matron Emma Coumbe of Temple Chapter, No. 13. Following the election of officers, in which Mrs. Sadie M. Major of Bethlehem Chapter, No. 7, was chosen as president for the coming ing year; Mrs. Sidney G. Wright of Brookland Chapter, No. 11, vice president, and Mrs. Elizabeth Cornish of Cathedral Chapter, No. 14, secretary-treasurer, a guessing game was held in which the souvenirs were awarded to Past Grand Fatron Charles F. Roberts and Mrs. Roberts. Refreshments were later served in the dining room. Plans were made for a picnic and also a visit to the country home of one of the members during the summer, and a vote of thanks was tendered the hostess for delightful hospitality. The Matrons and Patrons

The auxiliary home board met Tues The auxiliary home board met luesday afternoon at the home of Past Matron Elizabeth Plitt, with Mrs. Plitt and Mrs. Thomas S. Sergeon as joint hostesses. Preparations were completed for an entertainment to be given by the board at 1517 R street northwest Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Refreshments were served.

At the conclusion of the tion of the evening was devoted mainly to conferring the degrees on Emanuel Rice.

which will have work and refreshments tomorrow evening, on the occasion of its official visit, also announces a

Odd Fellows.

LODGES. Monday-Beacon Lodge, No. 15, degree; Union, No. 11, and Langdon, No. 26, Tuesday—Mt. Pleasant, No. 29, and Amity No. 27, degree; Washington, No. 6, and Golden Rule, No. 21, business.

Wednesday Eastern, No. 7, and Har-Covenant, No. 13, degree, Thursday—Columbia, No. 10, and Covenant, No. 13, degree, Friday—Central, No. 1, and Metropolis,
No. 16, degree; Phoenix, No. 28, business.

ENCAMPMENTS. Friday-Magenenu, No. 4, degree. PATRIARCHS MILITANT. Saturday-Canton Washington, No. 1,

Friday evening the encampment memarch has requested all members to be present, as this will be the last fraternal visit made to any encampment in the old encampment room of the ball the old encampment room of the hall, which will be demolished on the 1st of the month.

Capt. Alfred H. Noakes has called all

Federal City Lodge devoted Wednesday evening to business. Noble Grand Jones announced the first degree for next Wednesday, with Grand Representative John H. Wood in charge, and heading the cast. The lodge will also discuss the advisability of sending a degree team to Louisville next Septem

Mount Nebo Encampment, No. 6, will pay a fraternal visit to Mount Pleasant Lodge, No. 29, Tuesday evening. Past Grand Bert V. Wolfe is chairman of the committee on arrangements and promises a splendid program for the evening. The visiting patriarchs will be welcomed by W. E. Andrews, noble grand of Mount Pleasant, and Grand Patriarch Henry F. Allwine, accompanied by the officers of the Grand Encampment, and grand representatives of the Grand Lodge will attend. Mount Nebo Encampment, No. 6, will Rebekah Lodges.

Monday—Naomi, No. 1, and Ruth, No. 2, business.
Tuesday—Fidelity, No. 7, degree. Thursday-Friendship, No. 8, business.

At the meeting of Ruth Lodge, No. 2, omorrow evening, Capt. W. P. Pumphrey will rehearse the degree, preparatory to conferring it upon a class before the lodge moves out of the hall.

President Mrs. Belle M. Carter of the Rebekah Assembly has appointed Mrs. Ella V. Mallory, marshal of the assem-bly, as the representative on the memorial committee.

The ladies' auxiliary of Canton Wash The ladies auxiliary of Canton Washington last Tuesday evening, President L. E. B. McChesney presiding, decided to attend the theater party with Canton Washington the coming Tuesday evening. Consideration was given also to the details of the trip to Louisville in September.

Fidelity Lodge, No. 7, will confer the degree Tuesday evening. Degree Director Mrs. Nettle Mettler reports every officer of the team prepared, and invites members of all lodges to witness the work of the team.

Mount Pleasant Lodge, No. 9, conferred The meeting of Ruth Chapter, No. 1, tomorrow evening has been placed in charge of the past matrons, and something out of the ordinary in the line of entertainment is announced. Matron Clara Hall and Patron Maximillian Winkler have issued a general invitation to members of the order to be present.

Mount Pleasant Louge, No. 9, conferred the degree upon several candidates Wednesday evening, under the direction of Degree Director Eugene Ohlander. Under the good of the order the members were entertained with a novel program in charge of the men of the lodge. A card party will be held at the home of Past Noble Grand Katie Morrison, No. 3411 14th street northwest, Saturday evening, april 21.

Knights of Pythias.

LODGES. Monday-Amaranth Lodge, No. 29, rank of knight, and Century, No. 30, busiwas decorated with palms and flowers. The ritualistic work of the order was exemplified by Grand Lecturer E. W. Heiss, after which refreshments were

The grand chancellor and Grand Lodge officers will visit Equal Lodge, No. 17, the home lodge of Grand Trus-tee J. R. Haskins, Wednesday evening.

Vacancies in the line of officers in Excelsior Lodge, No. 14, have been filled by the election and installation of George Leese as keeper of records and seal and Robert Joncher as inner guard. The installation services were conducted by Grand Keeper of Records and Seal H. I. Gassor, as deputyers. and Seal H. J. Gassor, as deputy grand chancellor, assisted by Grand Prelate C. W. Henderson and Past Grand Chan-cellor John B. Dickman, acting as grand master-at-arms

Knights of Columbus.

The annual election of directors and officers of the Columbus Country Club will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the clubhouse. Plans will be outlined at this meeting for the completion of the club building this summer. A campaign for new members has been started under the leadership of Henry J. Zilliox.

Washington Council is preparing to celebrate its twentieth anniversary the week of April 22. The program announced will be as follows: Sunday morning, April 22, solemn high mass at the Franciscan Monastery in Brookland; on Sunday afternoon, the exemplification of the third degree at 3 o'clock under the direction of State. Friday evening the encampment membership will pay a fraternal visit to Deputy Leo A. Rover, followed by Magenenu Encampment, No. 4, when dinner at the New Ebbitt, complime the degrees will be conferred on a large class of candidates. The chief patri-

The regular meeting of Carroll Con

Ir. O. U. A. M.

Edward J. Ross Council, No. 26, Wednesday evening adopted a patriotic resolution, reciting, in part, "That the mem olution, reciting, in part, "That the members of Edward J. Ross Council, No. 26, J. O. U. A. M., conscious that the organization is founded on the principles of virtue, liberty and patriotism, and having pledged ourselves to preserve the American Union, believe that those rights have been and are now being assailed, do hereby pledge ourselves to stand by the President and offer ourselves in whatever capacity our country may need us. We accordingly pledge our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor."

sacred honor."

A copy of the resolutions was ordered to be sent to the other councils for adoption and for presentation to the President of the United States.

Anacostia Council, No. 16, J. O. U. A. M., met in Masonic Hall Tuesday. Two candidates were received for membership. The council unanimously agreed to keep all of its members who respond to the call to the colors in good standing while they are in the service under the flag. They will be entitled to all benefits, including sick and death benefits. The council also adopted a resolution to have a medical examination made of all applicants for membership. Patriotic speeches were made by Messrs. Haney, Mitchell, Simpson, Owen, Brashears, Smith, Carter, Parker, Estep and Thomas.

Mount Vernon Council, No. 10, Thursday night elected Past Councilors Norman E. Hutchinson and George W. Robertson delegates to the convention which will elect a representative to the National Council. The monthly social night, under the auspices of the good of the order committee of the council, was held Thursday. The program included an address by National Councilor C. B. Webb of Statesville, N. C.; piano solos, by Charles R. Owens; address, by R. L. Slagle of Andrew Jackson Council, No. 6; recita-Owens; address, by R. L. Slagle of Andrew Jackson Council, No. 6; recitations, by A. C. Columbus, P. C., and an address by Grand Orient W. T. Carter of Oriental Court, No. 10. A reception was tendered the national councilor. A buffet supper followed. The hall was decorated by Triumph Council, No. 3, Daughters of America.

Daughters of America.

Fidelity Council No. 4, Tuesday evening had as guests several from the state session held in Alexandria, Va., including Albert S. Bossong of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Peris and Mrs. Saules of Fairfax Court House, Va.; Miss Smith of Tangier Island, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Humphries and J. H. Woodward of Norfolk, Va., Mr. Bossong gave a patriotic address. Each of the gueste gave a talk on the work in their home councils. Capt. West and his guards put on the new ritualistic work. The state councilor of Virginia, Mrs. Humphries, said the "Goddess of Liberty," Mrs. Mamie Cox Howell, state councilor of District of Columbia, was the best she had ever seen. Albert S. Bossong made a complimentary address. Other visitors were O. B. Hopkins of Alexandria, Va., and State Judiclary Mrs. J. Pennington of Martha Dandridge, No. 1; Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Richards, of Mayflower, No. 11. state session held in Alexandria, Va.,

Liberty Council celebrated its twen-

The official visit of the grand matron and grand patron to Retellation. The control was attracted in the Northeast Tensor and grand patron to the religion of the grand matron, and most those of prominence being from the property of the pr pened to the young folks. The nasquerade dance was postponed until

Woman's Benefit Association. The annual banquet of the Officers'

Club of the District, at which the record keepers were hostesses, was held in the crystal room at the New Ebbitt Hotel, Thursday evening. The decorations were spring flowers with the naional and Maccabee colors. The place cards showed "Columbia" and the Goddress, "Solidarity of Women," Mrs. Kate of vocal solo, Miss Edna Hillyard; address, 'Solidarity of Women," Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett; whistling solo, Dr. Lulu Waller Barrett; whistling solo, Dr. Lulu
I. Waters; accompanist, Miss Elsie Montgomery; "Talkettes," Mrs. Fannie
E. Walters, Mrs. Sarah Andrew, Mrs.
Velma S. Barber, Mrs. Isabel W. Ball,
Mrs. Virginia Metcaif, Mrs. E. E. Bateman, Mrs. Mary Smith and Mrs. Estelle
V. Huntington. Mrs. Mabel T. La Rue, deputy supreme commander, presided.
Among the invited guests were Dr. A.
Frances Foye, Mrs. Williams and Mrs.
Coles of Baltimore. About seventy-five members were present.
April 23 Georgetown and Brightwood will have a dancing party and Mount Vernon a card party, and April 24 Liberty Union, a "hard times" party, with prizes for unique costume.

Mount Vernon Review, No. 2, met Mount Vernon Review, No. 2, met Monday evening. It was announced that in the recruiting contest Lieut. Commander Mrs. Mary Hagan has charge of the "navy" and Past Commander Mrs. Nellie O. Nichols of the "army," with Commander Mrs. Hattie Taylor, Record Keeper Mrs. M. A. Van Ness and Recording Secretary Miss E. Van Ness as "neutrals."

The review will give a card party at Pythian Temple April 23. Refreshments were served.

The review will give a card party at Pythian Temple April 23. Refreshments were served.

Liberty Union, No. 6, met at Pythian Temple Tuesday night. Among those present were Mrs. Mabel T. La Rue, Mrs. F. Walters, Mrs. M. Killeen and Mrs. L. Hammon, each of whom made an address. A program of entertain-ment was decided on for the "hard times social," which is to be held April speakers, the initiation of new candidates and social recognition of new members recently acquired. Those holding office in the court will be present and learn of new arrangements. News from state courts and instruction from the National Court will be presented.

Ladies of the Golden Eagle.

Washington Temple, No. 1, which neets tomorrow night at Pythian Temole, has announced through Chairman Mrs. M. Myers a theater party at Poli's uesday and a card party April 30.

FOR OTHER FRATERNAL NEWS SEE

NOTES OF ART AND ARTISTS

PORTRAIT OF MR. FLEMING NEWBOLD, BY OSSIP PERELMA.

houses, the purchase of farm imple-ments and animals and many comforts which could never have been enjoyed on the slender incomes from the land ccupying at present the special exhibition room in the Corcoran Gallery of Art. These painters are R. Sloan Bredin, Morgan Colt, Daniel Garber, alone. This is certainly art of a very W. L. Lathrop, Charles Rosen and Robert Spencer, all of whom reside for a doilles to elaborate bedspreads and portion of each year at or near New table linen. Hope, Pa. Almost without exception the pictures shown are landscapes painted in the New Hope neighborhood sound, painterlike productions, but

and T. H. Hall. The good of the order served refreshments. Mrs. Hall gave favors, consisting of Easter baskets filled with small Easter eggs. Remarks were made by Mrs. Newman of No. 8 and Mr. Sheele of No. 3. The council renently celebrated its twentieth anniversary with an open meeting and a musical and literary program.

Mayflower Council, No. 11, met Thursday night. Drillmaster Mason put his team through a mock initiation under the new ritual. Next Thursday, also, after the meeting, the council will be opened to the young folks. The our current landscape paintings > size these works range from a life-size statue of a young woman to a be heped that these arrangements will tiny little figure of a man, purposed as a seal. The range in subjects is several portraits of a tiny baby, two days old, three days old and three weeks old, awake and asleep, wide-eyed and contented, and with mouth wide open, as if waiting pitifully. There are wonderful little nude figures of boys and girls, men and women; there is a Nero, a Bacchus and kid, a symbolical figure. "Sacred Fire," and several imaginative compositions such as "Cloud Forms" and "Life's Vortex," in which the human figure is seen emergno less wide and varied. There are wonderful little nude figures of boys and girls, men and women: there is a Nero, a Bacchus and kid, a symbolical figure. "Sacred Fire," and several imaginative compositions such as "Cloud Forms" and "Life's Vortex," in which the human figure is seen emerging from the mass, lending rhythm of form and intellectual significance. Very powerful and impressive is a figure in bronze, "The Stoker," suggestive somewhat of Meunier, but by no means imitative. Impressive also is a little figure in marble, a powerful nude man, entitled "Achievement," Rarely does one see in the work of a Rebendard of the work of a Rebenda man exhibition such diversity of both manner and theme.

>
> This exhibition will continue until the 30th of the month.

A collection of water colors by Anthony Dver of Providence is now on exhibition at the Moore Galleries, on 17th

There is some probability that an ex-In the upper atrium of the Corcoran albition of the paintings by Ossip Gallery of Art there is now on view Perelma, the Franco-Russian artist whose a collection of works in sculpture by Chester Beach. Twenty-three are in marble, twenty-four in bronze. In

The exhibition of etchings by Cadwallader Washburn in the Dayton gallery, which was to have closed last man exhibition such diversity of both man rand them. This exhibition will continue until the 30th of the month.

This exhibition will continue until the 30th of the month.

**

Next Tuesday. April 17, an exhibition and sale of laces and cut work made by the Indians of North America under the direction of the Sybil Carter Indian Lace Association will be held at the residence of Mrs. Henry Kirke Porter, 1600 I street.

On many of the reservations the Indian women are now making lace as of the as that made by the Italian of French women, who have had generations of Sybil Carter, a missionary in the Indians women are now making lace as of the morthwest, and seed the matched the strength of the Indians of the northwest, and seed the matched the work was spended and making a study of lace.

Miss Sybil Carter, a missionary in the Indians of the northwest, and seed the Indians of the northwest, and seed the Indians of the Indians work in the Indians of the Indians work in the Indians of the Indians work in the Indians of the Indians and Indians.

One has a feeling in viewing Mr. Washburn's works that they were executed with genuine pleasure, that the annual meeting of the Washmark works that they were the Ojibways, and the first lace-making school for the Indians was sloux, Pueblos and the Mission Indians of southern C. Lifornia. The schools are located at Onondaga Castie and Tuscarora, N. Y.; Oneida, Wis. Birch Coules and Onigum. Minn.; Las folla reservation at Valley Center, Mess Grande and Santa Ysabel, Cal., and Laguna, N. M. So well have these in the work of the work is many the work of the

The regular meeting of Carroll Council, Tuesday evening, will be followed by a social session under the didders. Capt. Pumphrey, degree director, it is said, desires to have the team confer the degrees upon all candidates in waiting before the lodge moves to its new quarters at 19th street and Pennsylvania avenue, May 1. At the last meeting several applications for admission by initiation were received and several received from members of other Jurisdictions who desire to transfer to the old mother lodge of the District of Columbia.

The third degree was conferred by the degree team of Langdon Lodge, No. 26, under Degree Director M. S. Fall, at its last meeting. Past Grand C. E. Clark, who has been on the sick list for some time, it is reported, will soon again take an active part in the work of the lodge. Past Grand Edward I. King has been selected by Noble Grand A. M. Laster to represent the lodge on the memorial committee.

The regular meeting of Carroll Councid, Tuesday evening, will be followed by a social session under the direction of John F. McGuric, the lecturer. Prank A. Kidd, grand knight of the council, will also make an important announcement.

The annual banquet of the Bowling League took place Wednesday evening at the Continental Hotel, when prizes were distributed to the winning teams and to the holders of high scores. Joseph B. McCann, retiring president, was the toastmaster, and the speakers included State Deputy Leo A. Rover, Dr. J. Rozer Biggs, C. P. L. Moran, Harry McCarthy, Carl M. Betz, Frank M. McLaufter of the degree from the lodge of the old mother lodge. Past Grand Edward Laughlin, Joseph L. B. Chisholm and William J. Howard. The musical features were furnished by Bernard T. Fitzgerald and Arthur McCreight.

This morning, at 10:30 o'clock, a memorial mass will be said at St. Charles Church, Clarendon, Va., for Charles and the product of the Bowling League recently elected Harry McCarthy, Prank McCarthy, Prank McCarthy, Carl M. Betz, Frank M. McCarthy, Carl M. Betz, Frank M. McCarthy, Guardians of Liberty. Tomorrow's "third Monday" meeting will be marked with addresses by noted speakers, the initiation of new candideputy for this occasion, Past Grand High Priest E. St. Clair Thompson, who is also chairman of the triennial commemoration of the day. Arch Masons of the District for the purpose of entertaining the General Grand Chapter of the United States. A dispensation has been granted a new council of Royal and Select Masters, of which Dr. Montgomery Hunter is master. With this addition, there are now three councils in Washington No. 1. which has been in existence for some thirty years; Adou the residence of the existence for some thirty years; Adou on the menting of the three distance of the same that stirred his audience to the chapter and its members for faults they had never suspected. Roe Fulker-matter of the chapter home board will meet at the residence of Mrs. C. L. Henry, 19 U street northwest, Friday.

Columbia Chapter, No. 15, is to have of the Shrine, but only principal so-iourner in the chapter, received his distance of the Shrine, but only principal so-iourner in the chapter and its members for foals at the residence of Mrs. C. L. Henry, 19 U street northwest, Friday.

Columbia Chapter, No. 15, is to have of the Shrine, but only principal so-iourner in the chapter, received his day. Thus they had never suspected. Received his thirteen "hard luck stories." In commemoration of the day. Us treet northwest, Friday.

Columbia Chapter, No. 15, is to have of the Shrine, but only principal so-iourner in the chapter, received his day. Thus commemoration of the day. Us treet northwest, Friday.

Columbia Chapter, No. 15, is to have of the chapter, No. 15, is to have of the Whiting Estes, illustrious potential to the chapter of the day. Us treet northwest, Friday.

Columbia Chapter, No. 15, is to have of the chapter, No. 15, is to have of the Whiting Estes, illustrious potential to the chapter, and their rivends.

The chapter home board will level at the residence of Mrs. C. L. Henry, "Us treet northwest, Friday.

Columbia Chapter in the chapter and its members of Mrs. C. L. Henry, "Us treet northwest, Friday.

Columbia